

Do you have lived experience with a brain-based developmental disability (e.g., cerebral palsy, ADHD, and autism)?

We are looking for young people, parents/caregivers, other family members, researchers, educators, and academics who want to improve the lives of children through research.

What is CHILD-BRIGHT?

A Canadian research network that works to create brighter futures for children and youth with brain-based developmental disabilities and their families!

We welcome all applications, including those from Indigenous Peoples, racialized communities and other equity-seeking groups to join us.

What would you do?

- Offer guidance around meaningful engagement
- Help make research better & shape projects for families
- Participate in training and skill-building activities
- Review network-wide research materials and much more!

Youth, caregivers & family members will get paid $1000+
